

Mercedes Ramirez Johnson

Standard Biography

In 1995, Mercedes Ramirez Johnson narrowly escaped a commercial airplane crash that resulted in the fatalities of 160 individuals, including her parents. She presents her proprietary *Second Chance Living concept, an innovative mindset and approach with a demonstrated track record, to organizations such as General Electric, ExxonMobil, Microsoft, NASA, Chevron, and the various branches of the United States Armed Forces.

Prior to her career as a speaker, Mercedes spent nearly a decade in high-level sales roles within the pharmaceutical and medical software industries. As a record-breaking, multimillion-dollar producer, she achieved the distinction of becoming the youngest female and sole Latino account executive at Cerner Corporation. She actively engages in philanthropic endeavors, advocating for special needs children and children's health initiatives, particularly with organizations such as Make-A-Wish and The National MPS Society.

Mercedes Ramirez Johnson and her message have garnered significant national and international media attention.

Her extensive media presence encompasses appearances on The BBC, National Geographic Channel, Discovery Health Channel, and as a recurring guest on numerous nationally syndicated daytime talk shows on NBC and ABC. Additionally, numerous national and international media sources have published cover stories and special-interest articles about her, and she was recognized as one of the country's most prominent Latino emerging professionals by People Magazine's Spanish edition, People en Español.

Mercedes and her family reside in Dallas, Texas. To learn more visit MercedesRamirezJohnson.com.